

CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT PROCESSES (QUAL1150)

Do you have employees looking for a new learning opportunity?

Conestoga College, in partnership with Next Generation Manufacturing Canada, is offering funding towards this online course.

On completion of this fully online course, students will have available a wide range of tools and techniques for the practical application of Continuous Improvement in their workplace. The material will cover the standard approaches in the quality movement; (e.g. 6-sigma, TQM), plus the shift to Lean Manufacturing and the ramifications to cost, inventory and scheduling. Project management will be introduced, and students will undertake their own work-related project.

Hours: 30

Cost:

Public fee: $527.15

AmpUP participants: $263.58

To qualify for the discounted AmpUP rate, students must be registered by March 31, 2021.
